

A SPECIAL FAMILY EVENING PROGRAM WITH MARK KISTLER ...

"I wish I had Mark Kistler's Draw Squad when I was 10!" ... RAY BRADBURY

Schools scheduling Mark's Daytime Assembly Programs have the option of scheduling his extremely successful Family Evening Program. During the student assemblies, Mark invites all the children to return that evening for a fun-filled "Drawing in 3-D" adventure with their entire family! This program has generated record-breaking parent attendance in 22 states! Normally scheduled from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., this magical Family Evening Program motivates children to draw on their boundless imagination. Even adults who constantly say, "I can't even draw a straight line," will be confidently sketching cool 3-D illustrations. This delightful evening of creative magic is fun for the entire family!

MARK KISTLER'S SCHOOL OF IMAGINATION™

Every computer in your school is just one click away from becoming an art education learning station!

Mark Kistler's School of Imagination is an on-line art school teaching kids around the world how to draw in 3-D. This on-line art academy is a powerful classroom follow up to Mark Kistler's Elementary School Assembly Day. With students in 11 countries and 3 continents, this web site will be a "favorite" at all of your school's computer stations. The cleverly animated, step-by-step lessons take students through exciting, theme-based imagination adventures while teaching important fundamentals of illustration, design, cartooning, and comic character creation. This content-packed site is an experience your students will enjoy over and over again!

For a limited time, your school may purchase a "School Membership" for $5 per student (minimum 400 students), enabling all students and faculty a full year of unlimited access to the wonderful, wacky world of Mark Kistler's "Dare to Draw in 3-D!" lessons.
